FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Acorn International Receives Continued Listing Standards Notice from NYSE

SHANGHAI, China, September 21, 2015 – Acorn International, Inc. (NYSE: ATV) (“Acorn” or the “Company”), a marketing and branding company in China engaged in developing, promoting and selling products through extensive direct and distribution networks, announced today that on September 15, 2015, the Company was notified by the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) that it is not in compliance with one of the continued listing standards of the NYSE. The Company is considered below the NYSE’s continued listing criteria because the average per share closing price of the Company’s American depositary shares (“ADS”) for the consecutive 30 trading-day period ended on September 11, 2015 has fallen below the NYSE’s share price requirements. The NYSE requires the average closing share price of a listed company to be no less than US$1.00 per share over a consecutive 30 trading-day period. As of September 11, 2015, the 30 trading-day average closing price of the ADSs was $0.99.

Under the NYSE’s rules, the Company has six months from the date of its receipt of the NYSE notice to regain compliance with the minimum share price rule. The Company can regain compliance at any time during the six-month cure period if on the last trading day of any calendar month during the six-month cure period the Company’s ADSs have a closing share price of at least US$1.00 and an average closing share price of at least US$1.00 over the consecutive 30 trading-day period ending on the last trading day of that month. The Company can also regain compliance if at the expiration of the six-month cure period both a US$1.00 closing share price on the last trading day of the cure period and a US$1.00 average closing share price over the consecutive 30 trading-day period ending on the last trading day of the cure period are attained.

The Company expects to notify the NYSE that it will take steps to cure this deficiency within the prescribed timeframe. During this period, the Company’s ADSs will continue to be traded on the NYSE, subject to the Company’s compliance with other NYSE listing requirements. The Company’s business operations, its Securities and Exchange Commission reporting requirements, credit agreements and other contractual obligations currently are unaffected by this notification.
